M'sia country exec for RBS

KUALA LUMPUR: The Royal Bank of Scotland Group plc (RBS) has appointed Andrew Sill country executive and head of global banking and markets for Malaysia.

Sill would report directly to Muhammad Aurangzeb, country executive for Singapore and head of global banking and markets for South-East Asia and Pakistan, RBS said in a statement.

Sill has been with RBS for more than 20 years and has undertaken numerous roles within the bank, including responsibility for the heritage NatWest Markets business in Malaysia and India. — Bernama
