Bank, sponsors support Telipok school in advancing educational devt

KOTA KINABALU: Hong Leong Bank has always upheld the principle of “giving back to society” and has consistently taken an active role in fulfilling its corporate social responsibility.

On the morning of July 9, the bank, in collaboration with its sponsoring enterprises, generously provided financial support to SJKC ST Peter Telipok.

The funds will be used to enhance the school’s technical education equipment, further improving the learning environment and hands-on conditions for students.

During the grand cheque presentation ceremony, senior executives from Hong Leong Bank and representatives from the sponsoring enterprises were present, demonstrating their strong commitment to local basic education.

On behalf of the school, chairman Peter Yong received the cheque and delivered a speech expressing heartfelt gratitude for the generous contributions and unwavering support from the bank and its partners.

Also in attendance were board secretary Josephine Liew Siew Yun, board members Chong You Yin and Lim Yit Tung. Representatives from all parties jointly witnessed this meaningful act of sponsorship, which symbolizes the close collaboration between enterprises and educational institutions and sets a commendable example for shaping a brighter future together.

The school expressed sincere appreciation to Hong Leong Bank and the sponsoring enterprises for their support. This assistance not only contributes to enhancing teaching quality but also creates a more conducive learning environment for both teachers and students, fully reflecting the proactive role of corporations in caring for society and supporting education.

This initiative once again highlights Hong Leong Bank’s longstanding commitment to educational development and has earned high praise from the school, parents, and the broader community.
