Factory worker loses RM11,000 to scam

KEPALA BATAS: A factory operator lost RM11,000 of her savings after being duped by a syndicate into believing that she was involved in a money-laundering case. Seberang Perai north district police chief Assistant Commissioner Noorikane Mohd Noor said the 24-year-old woman received a call from an individual claiming to be a Putrajaya court official. She was told that she was involved in money laundering. The victim denied the claim before the call was transferred to a “police officer” who informed her there was a warrant of arrest for her. “Fearing arrest, she made a transfer of RM11,000 into an account provided by the syndicate.” He said the victim realised she had been duped only after informing her brother about the incident.
